Programs:

- Christian Montessori Classes: daily worship in the chapel with praise and God's Word.
- Teachers who carry the humbly serving spirit with the love of Christ and who encourage children to take an active role in their learning
- A loving, peaceful, and respectful learning atmosphere in which children practice goodness, develop patience, internalize self-control, and develop independence and self-confidence through the joy of discovery learning
- Daily activities where individual/group activities, active/quiet play, gross/fine motor skill development activities, outdoor/indoor experiences will be implemented
- Orderly and prepared environments, suited to meet the needs of each developmental stage, coherently granting the right kind of liberty to make the best use of the environment
- Montessori didactic materials designed to help children:
 - Develop fine sensory-motor coordination
 - Discover the fun in achieving and "doing it myself"
 - Develop habits of initiative, persistence, and sense of order
 - Enable to do self-correction for their own errors and to teach themselves by their own efforts
 - Sharpen the ability to perceive, observe, and judge more accurately
 - Acquire habits of prolonged concentration and a positive self-image
 - Develop an abiding curiosity to learn
 - Develop the foundations for success in reading, writing, and arithmetic
